

Things I Did Not Knock Over

by Emily Krill

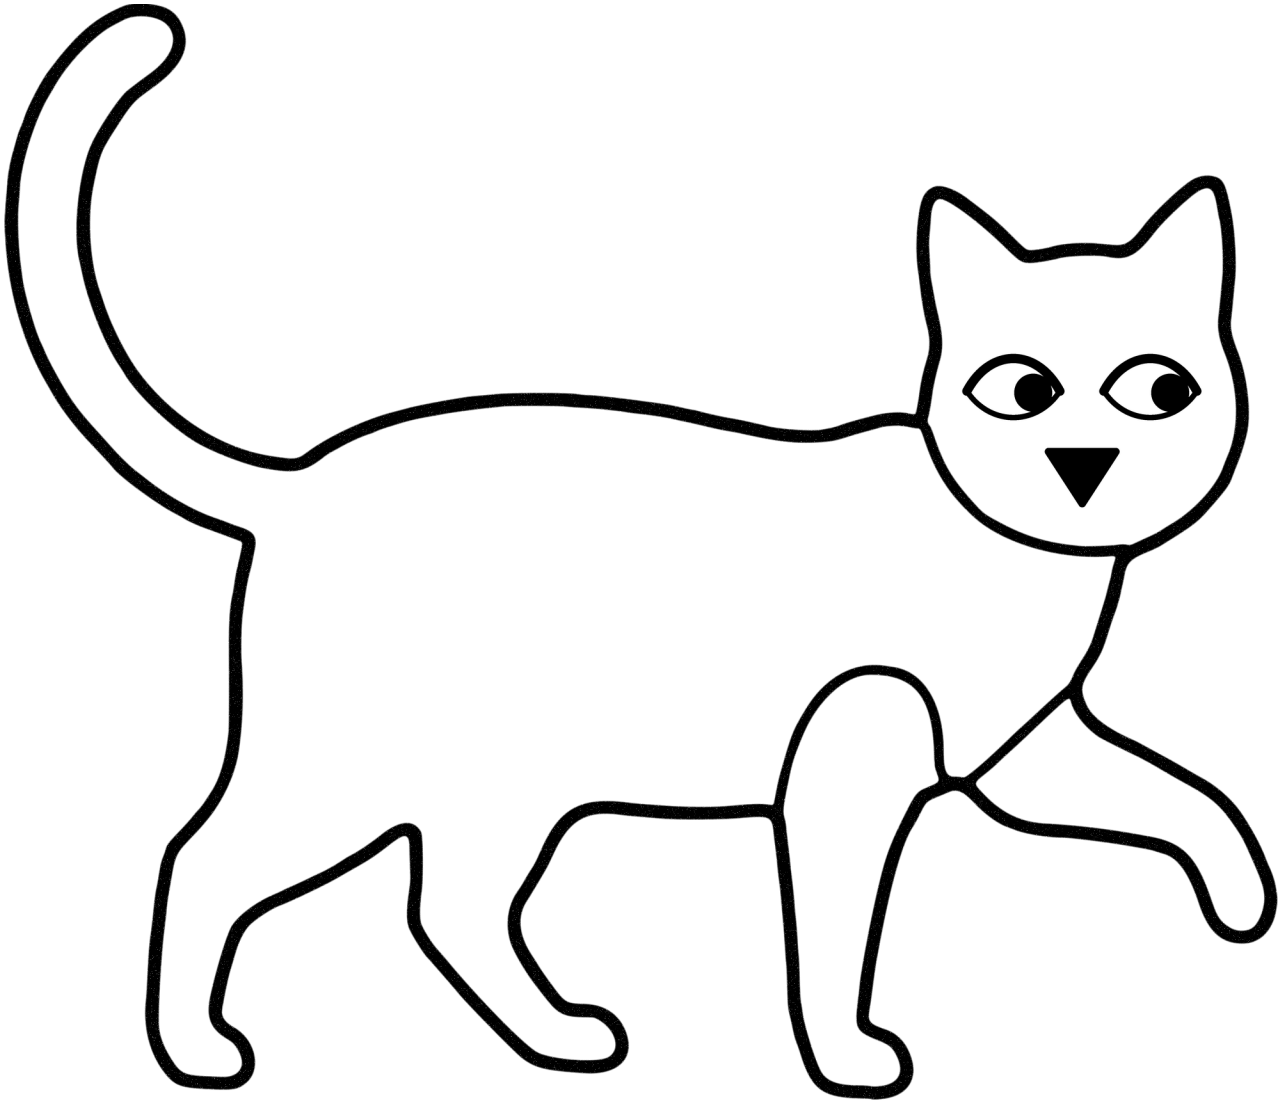

A counting book for ages 3 and up. A haughty cat insists she knocked nothing over, but the evidence against her mounts with each page. It counts to 10 and is made for reading aloud.

MAKE A CALICO CAT

Fill the cat with torn patterned paper.

You need magazines or patterned papers, a glue stick, and scissors.

1. Tear paper into small pieces.
2. Glue them inside the cat.

3. Glue on eyes and a nose. Cut them from the sheet, or draw a face.

Bonus: draw a room around your cat.
